It is well known that Leahy the optician is prepared to fit any eyes that can be fitted. All in need of glasses should appreciate his coming; he makes a specialty of curing headaches.

The Gus Sun Minstrel Troupe made quite a jump from here. They came from Traverse City here, and left at midnight on Special to Alba on D. & C., connecting with G. R. & I. and thence to St. Ignace.

The E. J. & S. had a slight wreck on their railway last Tuesday. The special returning from Bellaire in the morning with a single coach jumped the track this side of Chestonia. Only four of the six drivers of the locomotive went off, but the tender and coach tilted over on their sides in the ditch.

A fleet of three steam barges—the Sawyer, Buckley and Mat Wilson—and one schooner—Mueller—were here this week, the barges loading lumber and the three-masted schooner clearing with h-mock bark. It kept Lumber Inspector L. A. Hoyt and assistants pretty busy to handle the bunch all at once.

"Ole Olson," honest, good natured, whole hearted and simple, but true and chivalrous as a Bayard, has long retained a firm grasp on the affections of theatre goers and has survived enough years of continuous presentation to warrant the placing of this delightful character creation in the same category which holds "Rip Van Winkle," "Uncle Josh Whitcomb," and others of that popular class. The play is a happy blending of humor and pathos, and a truthful delineation of the development of the untutored Swedish immigrant boy into an honest and respected American citizen.

It will be played here at the Loveday Opera House Thursday night by an excellent company and a thoroughly enjoyable performance is assured. Mr. Ben Hendricks appears as "Ole." This is the play that made him famous.

Jay Hite has returned to his work at Traverse City.

Mrs. Eber Burdick entertained her sister, Mrs. G. Laper, first of the week.

Mrs. Erie Farmer recently entertained a friend, Miss Meda Sneathen of Horton Bay.

County Com'r of Schools J. H. Milford is busy these days attending to the duties of his office. He was at Charlevoix first of the week.

M. Larabee left first of the week for Eureka, Cal. He has a nice position there, and, if the country suits, will be followed by his family.

The firm of Danto & Banks has been dissolved. A. Danto continuing the business and his brother-in-law, M. Banks of Petoskey, retiring from the business.

Mrs. J. J. Pfender lost an umbrella while shopping first of the week. It was a present to her and valued as such. She would appreciate it very much if the party who found it would return same.

Charles Lewandowsky, Salesman at the Malpass Hardware Store, has been suffering from rheumatism the past week and confined to his bed. Is some better now and expects to resume his duties in a short time.

The M. E. Ladies Aid Society met with Mrs. R. Barnett for their Annual meeting, Wednesday and the following officers were elected; Pres, Mrs. Elvira Barrie; Secy, Mrs. Andrew Kline; Treas Mrs. M. Robertson. A delightful supper was served and all agreed it was a good place to be at. Our next meeting will be with Mrs. Myron Misenar, next Wednesday, Oct. 12th. Visitors always welcome.

John Porter, one of the earliest settlers of Leelanau county died at his home in Leland, Tuesday, aged 78 years. Deceased was father of Wm. P. and F. J. Porter, Misses Agnes and Carrie Porter, and Mrs. F. M. Severance, all of this city. Mr. Porter located in Leelanau county in 1854 and filled the position of teacher to the Indians under the Presbyterian board for a number of years. He began farming in Leland township in 1861 and has made that place his home for the past forty-four years. He held a number of county offices of trust. Relatives from here were in attendance at the obsequies.

"Ole Olson," the bright, lively and laugh compelling Swedish dialect drama, will be presented at the Loveday Opera House next Thursday night by an excellent organization of players headed by Ben Hendricks.

This popular Swedish comedy drama is familiar to most theatre-goers, but it retains a firm grasp on their favor. It has found a genuine, homely comedy mingled with just that simple touch of nature that makes the whole world kin. Ole, the uncouth Swedish immigrant, in his rough clothes, has his heart in the right place. He is good natured, even under ridicule, but has the qualities that turn ridicule into admiration. Prices 25c to 75 cents. Seats on sale Monday.

A perfect Anti-Bilious and Anti-Malarial protection and cure for old and young. California Prune Wafers. 100 for 25 cents. Ask your Druggist. For sale at Warne's Pharmacy.

One night early in the week the Petoskey band was scheduled to give a concert on the streets. It had no more than nicely started playing when a rainstorm came up, and soon it was pitting down in fine style. A large crowd of citizens had assembled to listen to the concert and were loath to leave their posts for a little rain. The band, seeing that its audience did not offer to move, did not wish to disappoint them by discontinuing the music, so they stood their ground and discoursed during the downpour, and it is said that not one of the crowd deserted and cut for shelter. All were pretty well wet down when the rain ceased, but the loyalty of the citizens toward their band remains unquestioned.
